Unearthing Lost History: An Afternoon in Camden Library

Saturday 17 May 2025
12.30-3.30pm at Camden Library
(includes afternoon tea)

Dr Ian Willis OAM will present a talk on Death in Training at the Liverpool Field Hospital in early 1915.

Death on the battlefield is expected, yet the death of new recruits to the army in 1915 sent a shock across the country.

Dr Ian Willis will examine the public outcry and subsequent Royal Commission about the abysmal conditions at the Liverpool Field Hospital. This story also examines the groundbreaking role of the Red Cross in Australia after its formation in 1914.

Jo O'Brien from Camden Area Family History Society will present an informative talk on Digging up the past with TROVE.
